

THE WHITE CARNIVAL

This event has for years been one of the most important trade occasions of the whole year at this store.

It is the usual custom in many places for these sales to buy up what are called commercially "lots of underwear," made up for the least possible money. No doubt you have experimented—you know the results.

Last year our "White Sale" met with a little different treatment with the best immediate and most lasting results we ever have obtained.

This year we proceed along the same lines.

Every piece is taken from our stock—goods we thoroughly believe in and are willing to stand back of—marked at a very small margin of profit.

It is the quality—the intrinsic value—the proper sizes and right proportions that we believe our friends appreciate more than cheapness. This is what you will see in this sale.

All departments selling white goods of any description have a part in this carnival—Muslin Underwear, White Blankets, Quilts, Linens, White Wash Goods, Handkerchiefs, Embroideries, White Waist Patterns, Lace Curtains, Curtain Materials, White Waists, Baby Dresses, Bonnets, etc.

In this "ad" we feature Muslin Underwear. Our next change will be something else equally as interesting.

Corset Covers that are mussed or perhaps soiled, better values than we can buy today to sell for 75c. Carnival price, 39c.

Corset Covers, we think these the best numbers to be found for 25c and 50c.

Drawers, one lot with fine hemstitched tucks on ruffle. Both open and closed. They are a good 50c value. Carnival price, 33c.

Drawers, one lot, not all sizes and some are soiled. These are 75c values. Carnival price, 39c.

Night Robes, one lot that sold for $3.00 each. They are mussed from handling. The quality is beautiful. Carnival price, $2.00.

Night Robes, one lot that sold from $1.69 to $2.75, one of a style, and we can't get more, so they go in at Carnival price, about one-third off.

Night Robes, the best values at 75c, 87c, $1.00 and $1.25 that we ever saw, excepting none.

Long Skirts, the strongest line we have ever shown, compare any Skirt we may show you at any price and see how much better, better made, better trimmings and more of it than you find in most lines.

No. 300 at $1.00, Worth $1.39, a Special—Has cambric top—a fine lawn ruffle in which is set two rows of cluny lace insertion and one row lace edging with four rows tucking over a deep dust ruffle.

No. 200 at $1.00, Worth $1.39, a Special—Has a cambric top with similar trimmings as above, except it has hemstitched tucks instead of plain.

No. 250 at $1.00, Worth $1.39, a Special—Has a cambric top, ruffle 17 inches deep, with two rows insertion and one lace and eleven rows hemstitched tucks.

No. 111 at $1.00, Worth $1.39, a Special—Has a cambric top, with ruffle of fine lawn on which are 18 rows tucking and one row of hemstitching.

No. 26 at $1.25, Worth $1.75, a Special—Has a fine quality cotton in top and a lawn ruffle with five rows (about 15 yards) of lace and insertion and a hemstitched ruffle.

Three other "specials" equally as good as the above.

Our line of Skirts from $2.00 up are beauties, running from 9 to 12 inches wider than the ordinary skirts at these prices and the embroideries and laces they are trimmed with are exquisite.

Our New Spring Lingerie Waists Are Now On Display in Our Garment Department.
